

My design has the crops be oriented to topography. Pathway radiates outward . So when you are at the center of all the paths you can get a total experience of the farm. The gardens and floral gardens are located near the farming buings since these would be the crops that will need to be maintained more and housing can enjoy beauty of gardens. All the buildings are located at the center of the site so all the activities happen in one place.